It's not easy to navigate today's volatile freight prices, tightening capacity and complex shipping options. But with the right partner, you gain a flexible and comprehensive domestic transportation network that ensures your shipment solution is the right fit, every time.

QuadExpress offers the capacity and expertise to deliver today's most competitive value in domestic transportation. We combine the strength and dedication of an asset-based shipper with the agility of best-in-class third-party carriers. All managed through a single-source with the expertise to solve your most demanding supply chain challenges and drive the highest total value to your business.

MORE LANES, MORE CARRIERS, MORE OPTIONS

- Quad-owned and multicarrier 3PL options to match the right carrier for the right lanes
- Regional, national and long-haul capabilities
- International coverage with extensive in-house expertise
- Multi-modal

LESS-THAN-TRUCKLOAD (LTL)

At QuadExpress, we take the complexity out of Less-Than-Truckload (LTL) shipments. We have the tools to effectively consolidate LTL loads and the extensive transportation network to ship more efficiently. Our ties to Quad/Graphics help us obtain high volume to drive down price and provide the expertise to make it simple. No matter what the size of your business or extent of your LTL needs, you'll gain more options to manage your LTL loads, with the best combination of reliable service and cost.

FULL TRUCKLOAD (FTL)

QuadExpress eliminates surprises in the unpredictable world of full truckload (FTL) freight. Our on-demand capacity and asset-light network give us the flexibility to meet your exact needs, in the most cost- and time-efficient way. You can count on three crucial deliverables from QuadExpress: we show up, we honor our rates, and we'll move your load by matching the best carrier for your freight, deadlines and destination.

GROUND EXPEDITED

QuadExpress is a dynamic logistics solutions provider with access to both the Quad/Graphics fleet and an extended network of over-the-road carriers. As our own customer, decades of experience in shipping high volumes of time-sensitive print materials at a moment's notice has given us best-in-class network, resources and tools. From how it gets there to the price and timing, you'll receive a "one size fits one" solution that meets your every need.
